Los Angeles Herald.

CITY AND COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER.

TUESDAY,.....MARCH 16, 1875.

Whither are we Drifting?

"Another attempt was made last night to burn the Navy building—the second or third during the last month. It is rumored that the incendiaries are in the interest of 'men in high places, and that the object is to destroy evidence of immense frauds in that department, amounting to over one hundred and forty millions of dollars, the proceeds of 'sale of ships, stores and war material' at the close of our late civil war; 'also, some four or five millions expended in the last Presidential election in the interests of Grant.'"—Extract from Washington correspondent New York Herald.

When DANIEL WEBSTER rose in the Senate of the United States in 1832, in reply to Senator HAYNE of South Carolina on the Constitutional question of State rights, embracing the right of secession, he opened that great effort in his usual ponderous manner, with the following words:

"MR. PRESIDENT: When the mariner has been tossed for many days 'in thick weather and on an unknown sea, he naturally avails himself of the first pause in the storm, the earliest gleam of the sun, to take his attitude and ascertain how far the elements have driven him from his true course. Let us imitate this 'prudence, and, before we drift further, refer to the point from which we departed, that we may at least, be able to conjecture where we now are. I ask for the reading of the resolution.'"

Would that we had a WEBSTER in the Senate of the present day to rise in reply, not to the Senator of South Carolina, but to call the attention of the tax-ridden people to the above announcement, in connection with the living stream of fraud which has, from time to time, been exposed during the whole period of the present imbecile Government. For near an entire decade we have patiently borne up under the weight of a debt of over two thousand millions of dollars, at an average interest, including the cost of engraving and printing bonds, commissions to syndicates, brokers and agents at least 8 per cent; and instead of this burden growing lighter, it is increasing daily, and at present the principal business of the Government seems to be the devising of means of further oppressing the people—not to diminish our national obligations, but to meet the demands upon its profligacy. We are well aware that in times of actual war, peculation, villainy and downright robbery is the rule—honesty the exception—but, after it is over, there is no excuse for this state of things. With proper men at the head of affairs, we would speedily be brought back to the original groove of honesty, economy and accountability in office. Has this been done? Look at the vast number of gigantic swindles perpetrated by men in high places, which have been unearthed during the present administration; and what has been done with them? Why, they have been referred to committees, the majority of whom were trembling for their own safety, and a mutual whitewashing has been the result, and many of them still remain in high places—others, less fortunate, have retired with colossal fortunes—some to play the role of "American snob" in Europe, whilst others have gone to the quiet shades of elegant private life, and among them a former Vice-President of the United States! We deal in stubborn facts, not fiction or abstraction, and the time is at hand when the people will do likewise. For what purpose do we elect a President? Under the Constitution he is the executive power. His oath of office requires that he shall see the laws faithfully administered. Has the present Executive done so in the numberless cases briefly alluded to in this paper? With the startling notoriety given in the extract which heads this article, that the naval buildings are threatened by incendiaries, to destroy evidence of tremendous frauds in that department, has he initiated the proper steps to enquire into the matter? Nay, verily. It is said that four or five millions of that fraud are intimately connected with himself and special friends. Hence he desires no investigation. Let the naval buildings go, and the evidence of fraud with them; I will not stir the matter. 'Tis said NERO fiddled whilst Rome was in flames. Does GRANT excuse himself by this precedent? The Democratic party, in its most degenerate days, were merely bungling, petty-larceny rascals, when compared with the present party; and peculation was generally confined to the borders and frayed edges of its skirts, never reaching the heart of the party. The present party—or, at least, its leaders—seem to have reduced villainy to a science and are endeavoring to raise it to a standard of respectability. It has run through the whole catalogue of crime, from the robbing of a soldier's widow of her pension, up to that of WARREN HASTINGS; and, with them, it only requires the stamp of success to give it respectability. We are, therefore, not surprised to see the people turning their thoughts to the primitive days of Democracy. We do not mean the Democratic party as it existed in its latter and degenerate days. We know something of that, for we confess to having served it in times gone by as faithfully and much longer than did JACOB for his wife, RACHAEL; and the Biblical parallel don't stop here, for we have been deceived and cheated by it quite as often—but we mean the pure principles of Democracy, as taught by JEFFERSON and MADISON. We have ever had more confidence in the sober, second thought of the people than in mere party, and we are pleased to see them moving in this direction. We have great hope in the recent Grange movement—not so much in its original design of correcting the irregularities of trade, for trade will regulate itself as surely as water will find its level, but rather in the fact that whilst investigating the laws of trade as between the producer and consumer, their minds may be directed to the higher subject of the science of legislation and Government; for, after all, it is upon these that our prosperity and happiness depend. In this way they may trace many of the evils under which they labor to bad Government, and be enabled to apply the remedy. From the vast natural resources of our country, we can carry a heavier load of taxation and bad Government than any other country on the globe; but because we can do so, is it logical to conclude that therefore it must be imposed, whether or not the exigencies of Government require it? So long as the people saw that the National debt was being reduced, however fractionally, they were content to bear up under their burdens; but when these small diminutions ceased entirely and propositions made for heavy loans to meet the current expenses of the Government, notwithstanding the great shrinkage in the appropriation bills for necessary public works, and that ways and means are being devised to impose still heavier burdens upon them, no wonder they have rebelled, and, taking a retrospect of the past, long for the golden days of Democracy. To the Grangers, who are chiefly composed of the honest tillers of the soil, we look for much in ultimately restoring our Government to its constitutional functions and the original object of its creation. We are not alone in this confidence in the people; most of our greatest and purest patriots have participated in this sentiment, and have been largely guided by the precepts and examples taught them in their younger days in the Granger's cottage, and by none more than by the eminent man whose exordium to his great speech in reply to Senator HAYNE we have already quoted at the head of this article; and we know of no more fitting conclusion than by quoting his peroration, which is in the following eloquent words:

"When my eyes shall be turned 'to behold for the last time the sun in heaven, may I not see him 'shining on the broken and dishonored fragments of a once glorious Union; on States dissevered, discordant, belligerent; on a land rent with civil feuds or drenched, it may be, in fraternal blood! Let their last feeble and lingering glance rather behold the gorgeous ensign of the Republic, 'now known and honored throughout the earth, still full high advanced, 'its arms and trophies streaming in their original lustre, not a stripe obscured or polluted, nor a single star obscured—bearing for its motto no such miserable interrogatory as 'What is all this worth?'—nor those other words of delusion and folly—'Liberty first and Union afterwards'—but everywhere, spread all over in characters of living light, blazing on all its ample folds as they float over the sea and over the land, and in every wind under the whole heavens 'that other sentiment, dear to every American heart—Liberty and Union, 'now and forever—one and inseparable.'"

Tustin City.

Mr. C. TUSTIN, an old Californian, is one of the few men around whom society is ever ready to cluster. He came to California at an early day, and pitched his tent on San Francisco Bay. Very soon the people followed him and the beautiful town of Petaluma was the result. Four years ago he purchased a barren ranch, in the East end of Los Angeles valley, and as usual, his magnetism has attracted a community around him, and the town of Tustin is the result. We had heard of this man and Tustin City before but never until a few days ago visited them. The reader may, like us, wonder why some men possess the luck or secret of building up towns more than others; but when you visit Mr. TUSTIN and Tustin City it is all explained. The town is located in the midst of a grove, surrounded with the most lovely, fertile country on earth, which is now being rapidly filled up with a thrifty class of farmers. It is only eight miles from Newport, which is the shipping point for all that portion of the country. They are now receiving their lumber there for $20 per 1,000 feet. They can and will ship their produce from that point, until this valley is connected with the mines by the Los Angeles and Inyo Railroad. They have an elegant school-house, store and blacksmith shop, all in a flourishing condition. Several new buildings are now going up. There is one other secret about the growth of this place, and it is this: The soul of Mr. TUSTIN is as great and liberal as the soil around him. It requires such men to attract communities, and keep up the progress of the world.

OUR old friend D. B. WOLF, better known as "Barney," of San Francisco, is a candidate for Clerk of the Supreme Court. He is a good fellow and thoroughly competent to fill the position to which he aspires.

Stock Subscription.

Col. PEEL has just returned from the East end of the county. With what has been subscribed, together with amounts promised, he has about three thousand dollars, this makes about nine thousand for that end of the county. He says all the people are favorable to the Los Angeles and Independence Railroad, and will give further assistance rather than let it fail. The crops in the East end of the county were never better. The sheep raisers are uneasy about range, there is so much of the land being plowed up. No need of rain there yet.

MESSRS. TIFFANY & PAINTER have sold the Evening Express to a joint stock company, and last night's issue of the paper appeared under the title and ownership of the "Express Newspaper and Printing Company." The Express is under the editorial control and business management of Messrs. AYERS & LYNCH, two able writers and experienced newspaper men, who will make it the evening as the HERALD is the morning paper of Southern California.

Senate Proceeding—No Chance for the Admission of Pinchbeck.

CHICAGO, March 13th.—A Times Washington special says: "There is no chance for Pinchbeck's admission. The speech of Christianity, of Michigan, yesterday, while it made no votes, is indicative of the way all new Republican Senators will vote." The same special says: In his speech, yesterday, Christianity showed he had no great reverence for Attorney-General Williams. In one place he blamed him as one of the President's bad advisers, and again he made a point which he said was conceded by all lawyers in America, General Williams alone excepted. If he might call him an exception, the Senate, in executive session, yesterday, decided to close the debate on the Pinchbeck question Tuesday.

WASHINGTON, March 13th.—The Senate resumed consideration of the resolution for the admission of Pinchbeck, Edmunds of Vermont, moved to amend the resolution by inserting the word "not" before the word "admitted," so as it would read "Resolved, That P. B. Pinchbeck be not admitted as Senator from Louisiana." etc. This being the amendment Edmunds said it was the understanding that the vote should not be taken to-day, and he would not, therefore, ask the Senate to vote now.

Thurman then took the floor and spoke in opposition to admission of the applicant.

Congressional News.

WASHINGTON, March 12th.—The Senate this afternoon decided upon the following order of business: The consideration of the Hawaiian treaty on Wednesday. The Pinchbeck resolution to be resumed to-morrow, it being understood that the vote shall be taken next Tuesday; after that the Hawaiian treaty to be disposed of. It is generally thought that the session will terminate by the end of next week, with no action on the resolution recognizing the Kellogg Government.

The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations made two amendments to the Hawaiian treaty, which with the treaty, were referred back to the Senate yesterday with the recommendation that it be ratified. One amendment is to strike from the list of Hawaiian productions on the free list such other fancy goods. The second adds to American productions on the free list starch, harness, all manufactures of leather, and tobacco manufactured in and leaf.

Senator Cameron is confident that both amendments will pass the Senate and the treaty be ratified.

Reported Discoveries of Iron and Gold in Yuba.

MARYSVILLE, March 13th.—The party from San Francisco who are prospecting for iron ore, near Wheatland, have succeeded in finding a rich vein of bearing rock, which they think will be developed into a rich iron mine. It is located about four miles above the bridge and nearly opposite Garden Bar. Immediately adjoining this Messrs. Robinson and Gillette, of Eureka, have discovered dirt very rich with coarse gold. They have located a mining claim and will proceed to construct a ditch and bring water from Bear river with which to operate.

Danger of an Overflow.

NEW ORLEANS, March 12th.—State Engineer Thompson, after a careful survey along the river, reports danger from crevasses imminent.

From the Black Hills.

CHEYENNE, March 13.—Four Black Hill miners arrived at Fort Laramie to-day, bringing favorable reports of the mineral resources of that district. They bring fine specimens of gold and silver, plumbago, lead and copper, and say there is more gypsum in the Black Hills than ten railroads could take away in fifty years. Many strangers now here are supposed to be bound for the hills, notwithstanding the orders of the Government to the contrary. The Indians are reported anxious to sell their right to the Government, but will not give it up without pay.

San Francisco News.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15th.—About 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon Samuel E. Oakley, Captain of the steamer Express, took a room in the American Exchange Hotel. Yesterday morning he was found in his bed in a dying condition. Soon after he expired. An empty bottle labelled laudanum, and another partly full of the same drug, were found in his pocket. Mrs. Oakley says her husband had been a long time in the habit of taking laudanum to alleviate pain and induce sleep. She thinks he took an over-dose by mistake. There was a meeting of delegates of the different Irish societies yesterday at Irish-American Hall. The prospects are favorable for the best celebration of St. Patrick's Day ever held in this city. The Emmet Guard, from Virginia, will arrive to-day to take part in the celebration.

Body Recovered—Shuffled Off.

TRUCKEE, Cal., March 14th.—Light-crusten, a boy missing since the night of the Boca wreck (three months ago), was found in the Truckee river, below

Camp 18 to-day. The body was in a remarkable state of preservation. Doctor Shaw, the well known millwright, stabbed himself fatally at Banner mill, this morning. He was suffering from delirium tremens.

Shooting—Badly Wounded.

MARYSVILLE, March 14th.—A shooting affray occurred last night between Jacob Stoddard and Albert Glenn, two Yuba City blacksmiths. They had been drinking together during the evening and quarreled on their way home. Stoddard shot Glenn, the ball penetrating the abdomen and passing entirely through. A probably fatal accident happened to John Morgan, a miner at the Mountain House. On Thursday he was hunting and carried his gun under his arm. The barrel was discharged, and burst, making a fearful wound in his side. He was alive at the last accounts. There is but little hope of his recovery.

Foreign News.

LONDON, March 15th.—The Papal brief in reply to the address of the German Episcopate, declares that the Vatican decrees contain nothing which alters the relations of the Pope and Roman Catholics. It endorses the statement that judgment as to the validity of the papal elections appertains to the church alone, and urges the Bishops to resist and expose error.

ROME, March 14th.—Official denial is given to the dispatch to the London Times of March 11th, which says that Germany had sent a note to Italy asking whether she would continue to exempt the Pope from the obligations of law, while he used the liberty for the purpose of fermenting rebellion in Italy.

B. F. and John Garner last Wednesday captured a sturgeon on the Tuolumne river, about eight miles above Modesto, nine feet and four inches in length.

CITY AND COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER.

TUESDAY, MARCH 16, 1875.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Orizaba sails for San Francisco to-morrow.

Uncle Josh Talbot proposes to start for his mines again next Thursday.

All of the hotels in the city were overcrowded last night.

Mr. J. F. Ward is the latest reported happy father. It is a daughter.

Mr. Joseph Blumenthal, recently from the East, will please call at this office.

Six hundred and forty-four sacks of corn were shipped from Downey last Saturday.

The Orizaba arrived at Wilmington yesterday with 150 cabin passengers, 150 Chinamen and 400 tons of freight.

The new bank soon to be started here will be called the "First National Gold Bank of Los Angeles."

The bark Rafter arrived with material for the Main Street and Agricultural Park Railroad yesterday.

The barkentine Emma Augusta arrived at Wilmington yesterday with lumber for Perry, Woodworth & Co.

We are glad to see that Offices Cruz has sufficiently recovered from his late severe wound to be on the street again.

A safe investment in a good paying business can be made. Everybody must have Butterick's patterns. See advertisement.

There came near being a jail delivery last Sunday, which was prevented by the timely discovery of a bar of iron and a few loose bricks.

They are a precious set of innocents at Anaheim. The office of Deputy Sheriff which pays $250 a year and perquisites is open and nobody wants it.

Judge Hannah, of Chicago, and Mr. John S. Dilworth, one of the wealthiest citizens of Pittsburgh, are in the city, registered at the Backman House.

Any one who thinks Southern California cannot cure meats equal or superior to Chicago should test the hams and bacon cured by J. D. Durfee at the Monte. They may be found at the Grange Store.

Mrs. Peter Wilson notifies all liquor dealers in the city and county, by an advertisement this morning, that she will prosecute them according to law if they furnish her husband with any kind of intoxicating liquor.

The "Bitter Witch" man has been down to Anaheim and has distributed his wonderful medicine among the drug stores at that place. Now, when a druggist sells a bottle of the decoction he sings a or tells a funny lie.

We learn that the entertainment given for the benefit of Wilson College at Wilmington, last Saturday evening was a complete success. It comprised readings by Prof. Saxton, music by Mrs. Seales, tableaux, etc. The net receipts were $150. There is talk of repeating the entertainment before long.

Our Downey correspondent informs us of a severe accident which occurred at that place last Saturday. While a Mr. Fagan was at work on the roof of the Baptist Church, finishing it off, he slipped and fell to the ground, sustaining some dangerous injuries. The attending physician pronounced his case not fatal, however.

Another threatening letter has been received by a gentleman in this city, purporting to come from some of Chavis' bend. It breathes forth fire, smoke and destruction, and consigns the American population living in thinly peopled settlements to utter annihilation in the event of Vasquez being hung. That big thief Chavis had best go very slow or he will get his head in a sling one of these fine evenings.

Coroner Richardson held an inquest at the hospital yesterday on the body of Santiago Gonzales, a Sonoran about 42 years old, who was the victim of a shooting affray Sunday afternoon. The man was shot by one Jesus Avelas at a ranch about four miles from the city, on the San Pedro road. The wounded man was brought to the hospital, where he died about 2 o'clock yesterday morning. Avelas surrendered himself to the authorities and was lodged in jail.

Early yesterday morning, some teamsters driving along San Pedro street, a short distance below the city, discovered the body of a man lying in the road, and upon investigation found that life was extinct. Coroner Richardson was at once notified and held an inquest on the body of the deceased, who proved to be a Sonoran, about 40 years old. The name we have been unable to learn. The evidence went to prove that the man had been seen last about 5 or 6 o'clock Sunday afternoon, when he was coming away from a ranch some one and one-half miles below in an intoxicated condition. A long scalp wound was found upon the top of the head, evidently inflicted by some sharp instrument some time before the man's death. It was not, however, considered sufficient cause in itself of death, and the jury attributed the demise to intoxication and exposure.

Military Post at San Diego. The Union of the 14th says: "The matter of the re-establishment of the military post at San Diego, urged on the Secretary of War by the Pacific Coast delegation, has been referred by that officer to General Schofield for his recommendation. We may be permitted to express our opinion that the General's recommendation in the premises will be favorable. We believe that, as all the reasons which formerly existed for the maintenance of a post here still exist, and in a greater degree than before, the post will be re-established and will be a far more important one than in the past.

They are about to build a $2,000 school-house at Rio Vista.

Paper Mill—A Proposition.

Mr. S. A. Waldron, Secretary of Los Angeles Grange, has kindly furnished us the following letter for publication:

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 2, '75. Mr. S. A. Waldron, Secretary of Los Angeles Grange.

DEAR SIR: I have seen in a copy of the Los Angeles HERALD of January 1st that a paper mill is demanded in your county. Also that a vote was passed by the Grangers last July to build a mill. I am employed by the Rock City Paper Manfg. Co. of this place at present. I have friends in Los Angeles and am thinking of coming out to your country. I have taken the liberty of writing to you for some information:

1st. Have you commenced building a mill? If so, what is the capacity of it? If you have not commenced, will there be one built by your Society this Summer?

2d. Will your Society build a mill and lease it for three or five years to some practical men (who are willing to work themselves) at a fair rate of interest, and who propose to make your country their future home?

There are several men employed here who are anxious to find a pleasant country. These men are practical paper-makers, and can run a mill successfully. They would prefer to lease a mill.

I have no doubt a mill would pay handsomely, not only to the owners and lessees, but to the farmers. Can straw be obtained readily? A good quality of paper can be made with from 40 to 60 per cent. of straw. Can fuel be procured at a reasonable price? It requires a large amount of coal or wood to run a paper mill. Is there good water power in or near Los Angeles, and can it be obtained at a reasonable rate?

O. W. SMITH. We will answer the questions in turn, as far as we are able, not only for the benefit of the writer, but for the information of others who may have turned their eyes toward Los Angeles as an eligible place for manufacturing purposes. No definite movement has as yet been made towards the construction of a paper mill.

At the time when the resolution in question was passed by the Grange, a committee of City Councilmen and one from the District Council, Patrons of Husbandry, held a conference on the subject and selected a site, with water power suitable for mill. Liberal propositions were made at the time for practical paper manufacturers.

There is a great abundance of straw to be had in the country, much of which now goes to waste or is used by farmers for fertilizing. This, no doubt, could be purchased cheap and prove a benefit both for manufacturer and farmer. The item of fuel is of much greater importance, coal being worth from $20 to $22 per ton and wood from $10 to $14 a cord. Los Angeles is situated at a good distance from a manufacturing place of much importance. By the canals or water ditches which lead to the city, a water power is supplied ready at hand which will furnish excellent facilities for manufacturing of every kind. The subject, however, involves the limits of a newspaper article, and can only be well settled by the personal inquiries of practical men. To such we extend a cordial invitation to come and see the natural advantages offered here.

The capitalists of Los Angeles will extend liberal propositions to those who may thus interest themselves.

THE BONANZA MAN IN QUOD. The San Francisco Call of the 11th inst. has the following:

The official gauge of the grape brandy seized at Tarbox & Curtis' distillery (the officers having finished pumping out the underground vats) shows 61,702 proof gallons seized at Los Angeles, besides which six pipes, 1,600 proof gallons, shipped from under re-used stamps, were seized a short time before in San Francisco, making a total of 63,302 proof gallons seized. In addition to which was seized the valuable distillery property. The grapes, worth probably from $30,000 to $40,000. Warrants were issued for the arrest of E. T. Tarbox, the nominal proprietor, and Lucien Curtis, the superintendent. Tarbox has been arrested in this city and bound over to appear before the next United States Grand Jury, in the sum of $10,000, with James Laidley as security.

A Young Wife's Suicide. An inquest was held yesterday on the body of Minnie L. Boyce, the woman who committed suicide by swallowing morphine on Wednesday. John Boyce testified that his wife was a native of Missouri and aged but 21 years. He was at Woodland at the time, preparing for a new home for the reception of his wife, whom he expected on the evening previous to her suicide. He could not account for the strange deed. "She was the happiest and best little woman in the world," he said. She was a native of Illinois with neuralgia. The druggist who sold her the powder and the physician who attended her at her death were heard, and the jury returned a verdict of suicide.—S. F. Chronicle, March 13th.

Escape of a Prisoner—The Iron Rail. BAKERSFIELD, March 14th.—E. P. Welch, the condemned murderer, escaped from the Inyo county jail on the night of the 13th. Five hundred dollars reward has been offered for his arrest. Railroad building is active. Allen's Camp twenty-five miles Southeast of Bakersfield will be reached by rail in two weeks if the iron can be obtained.

A Little More Beecher-Tilton. NEW YORK, March 14th.—It is uncertain when Beecher will testify. Counsel for the defense are said to be waiting for the passage by the Legislature of the act permitting Mrs. Tilton to testify, and that Beecher will supplement her testimony.

A petition has been forwarded to Washington asking for a Postoffice at the new town of Isleton, on the lower Sacramento.

The Son of George Rowell, of Sacramento, a boy twelve years of age, had a finger shot away by the careless use of a pistol which he was firing for amusement.

J. B. Brogan, of Prosser Creek, Nevada county, has contracted to deliver 1,000,000 feet of square timber at Virginia City.

There was a good old-fashioned shake-up of mother earth at Ukiah on Saturday, the 6th inst. No damage; only a few people scared.

A Description of the Badge for St. Patrick's Day.

We were shown yesterday by Messrs. James Gorman and Thomas Desmond, one of one hundred badges which they have received from San Francisco, to be worn by Irish rebels who will march in the procession on St. Patrick's Day. The design of the badge is simply magnificent. The colors of the rosette are red, white and green, with a gold star in the centre. The badge attached is of green, white and gold. On the green portion is engraved in gold a Phoenix arising from its ashes, the sun-burst and different emblems and flags of Ireland, entwined around by the shamrock. Underneath stands the Goddess of Liberty, holding in her hand the ancient harp of Ireland. On the white portion of the badge is engraved the red hand of Ulster, grasping a drawn sword. The red hand represents the hand of Shane O'Neill, of Ulster.

Whose tongue and Ulster accent woke the ghost of Columbus. Whose warrior words fenced round with spears the coast of Derryhill. Whose reckless tones gave life and death to vassals and to knaves, And hunted hordes of Britons into holy graves.

Who held aloft the "bloody hand" until it bled the sun, And shed such glory on Tyrone as chief had none of ours. He was rough and wild—and who's not wild, to see his heartiness raze! He was merciless as fire—ah! yet he ended him, he bleated!

He was proud—yes, proud of birthright; and because he hung about Your British stars of princedom as the rock He was wild, insane for vengeance—aye! and preached it till Tyrone Was waddy reeling with "red hands" to clutch their own;

The pale-face droopeth northward; ah, his soul must loom up there, By old Armagh or Antrim's glens, Lough Foyle, or Lough Erne! I'll speed me hitherwards, your ghost must wander there, proud Shane, In search of some O'Neill, through whom to troth his hate again!

On the lower end of the badge is a beautiful gold fringe. The whole is representative of the past glory of Ireland, and of her future aspirations.

A big canal to drain the tule land in Big Meadows is talked of by the owners of swamp and overflowed lands in that section.

A number of persons in Vallejo, mostly discharged workmen from the Navy Yard, are proposing to burn a kiln of brick.

CITY AND COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER.

TUESDAY, MARCH 16, 1875.

A Projected Revolt Prevented.

The State Prison at San Quentin contains over 1,100 convicts, among whom are some of the worst criminals in the United States. These prisoners are confined in a walled parallelogram.

All of the prison buildings are within the walls, which vary in height from 25 to 30 feet. The prisoners are held in check, not by the strong walls and barred gates, but by about forty-five guards armed with Henry rifles. The fear of these rifles, according to the statement of prison officers, prevents serious emeutes. During the latter part of February, however, some of the prisoners arranged a plan for escape in spite of rifle influence, and for ten days a gang of twenty men were preparing for an outbreak. The secret reached the ears of the prison authorities, and about the time the conspirators were ready for business the officers drove them into a large room under a strong guard. Upon searching the desperadoes, for such they nearly always proved to be, it was discovered that they were armed with knives and other weapons and a set of false keys.

It was fortunate for all concerned that the suppression of the conspirators was accomplished without the shedding of blood. The misguided men who were engaged in conspiring against the prison authorities will, of course, lose all their credits for good conduct, if any such they possessed, and the confinement will be more irksome than ever.—S. F. Bulletin, March 11th.

Origin of the God Hymen.

Danahet, the French poet, tells us, respecting the Dedication of Hymen, that he was a young man of Athens,

obscurely born, but extremely handsome. Falling in love with a young lady of distinction, he disguised himself in a female habit, in order to get access to her and enjoy the pleasure of her company. As he happened to be one day in this disguise with his mistress and her female companions, celebrating the sea-shore rites of Ceres Eleusina, a gang of pirates came upon them by surprise and carried them all off. The pirates, having conveyed them to a distant island, got drunk for joy and fell asleep. Hymen seized his opportunity, armed the virgins, and dispatched the pirates;

after which, leaving the ladies on the island, he went in haste to Athens, where he told his adventure to all the parents, and demanded her hand in marriage as her ransom. His request was granted, and so fortunate was the marriage, that the name of Hymen was ever afterward invoked in all future nuptials, and in progress of time the Greeks enrolled him among the gods.

Pacific Coast Items.

ley, Plumas county, last week.

that city needs a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals.

Castings for fifty box cars for the Northern Pacific Narrow-gauge Rail-

A man named J. D. Satchel was severely cut with a razor, at Vallejo
